HENDERSON TELLS OF KAHANAMOKU'S LAST MAINLAND SWIMMING

Lew G. Henderson, manager of the Hawaiian swimming expedition, returned to Honolulu last night by the S. S. Honolulu.

Duke separated from the rest of the party in Chicago on March 14. He went on to Philadelphia. The rest of the party started West three hours later, going to San Francisco via Los Angeles, where a day was spent.

Henderson left for home ahead of Genoves and Expert Companion Miller, who are following by a later boat, probably the Lurline.

Genoves was in but one event, the 500 yards in a twenty-five yard tank and Genoves finished fourth, being beaten by ten yards.

There is a chance that he may have a race in San Francisco with Walter Pomroy, the Olympic Club champion.

Duke's Last Races.
Speaking of Duke's last two races in Chicago, Henderson says:

"On Tuesday, March 12, Duke swam in the fifty yards event at the Illinois Athletic Club.

"The start of Duke's heat was bad, due to an inexperienced official. Three men swam in the heat, and Duke took second place, though badly fouled by the last man. The foul jarred his whole body and particularly his shoulder. The men collided at the turn, but the fault was not Duke's.

"The heat was a fast one, and first and second men qualified for the final.

"There was another poor start in the final heat. There were two or three false breakaways, and then the men were got off none too good.

"Duke was last away, but the went after the bunch, and at forty yards was leading by a couple of feet. He made a very poor turn, however, and this cost him the race. It was a creditable performance, nevertheless.

"On Wednesday, March 13, Duke won the 100 yards championship, defeating a very fast field, though in only 57 seconds flat.

"Duke was second in his heat in the hundred, and many praise his foxiness for taking his time, and being satisfied with second place, which was sufficient to put him in the finals.

"The final heat of the hundred was a beautiful race. The start tested Duke's nerve, as one man false-started three times. The race was neck and neck until the last twenty yards, when Duke let out a link and won by a yard.

"Duke will stay with my folks at Mount Airy, Philadelphia, until the time comes for him to leave for Stockholm. He will be trained by George Kissler of the University of Pennsylvania."

SCENE OF OLYMPIC ACTIVITY FOR WORLD'S ATHLETIC HONORS

Sweden's athletes are being coached by Ernest Hjertberg, at one time a first-class distance runner who won national fame while running under the colors of a New Jersey athletic club. Afterward he was in charge of Columbia University's track team, and at one time he was considered one of the best coaches in this country. The Irish-American A. C. came rapidly to the front under his coaching.

Hjertberg's reputation traveled back to his native land. A splendid contract direct with the Swedish Government was offered him and he immediately accepted the position as official coach and trainer of all Sweden. That was nearly two years ago, and today Hjertberg is able to pick some of his team.

Even before their newly acquired coach arrived on the grounds the King of Sweden had graciously accepted the honorary position of patron of the Olympic games, the Crown Prince agreeing to act as Honorary President. Col. Victor Balck, who is known as the "Father of Athletics" in Sweden, was elected President, J. S. Edstrom Vice-President and Kristian Hellstrom Secretary.

Not only has Sweden already received every assurance that all the countries which have sent teams to previous Olympics will send stronger teams than ever to the Stockholm games, but many nations never before represented in international athletic competition, have been eagerly applying for permission to enter for the various events.

The most unexpected of these is, perhaps, China, in the throes of a struggle for freedom from the rule of the Manchu Dynasty, has surprised the Swedish authorities too. The Chinese university students have been under the coaching of European experts for the past three or four years. They expect to send a team of about twenty men to Stockholm. Russia, Japan and Bohemia also wish to get on the international athletic map this year.

The Swedish Government has appropriated 900,000 kroner for a stadium with a seating capacity of 30,000. The stadium is located only a mile from town. It can easily be reached by trolley car, and twenty-five cents will carry you there in a taxi.

Last summer the work was started. One month's work this spring and the beautiful building and the fine grounds will be entirely completed. The construction is of hand made purple brick and granite.

The plans show a perfect amphitheatre, all under roof. It contains track, four laps to the mile, and a grass football ground, in the middle track for the 100 and 200 metre races. Thus the latter race will be held on a straight course for the first time in the modern history of the games.

The gates and arcades are vaulted in the old medieval Swedish character. On the brick walls there are blocks of granite inlaid in which a series of Swedish heroes will be sculptured, and the gates for the entrance stairs will likewise be decorated with eighteen gods and goddesses.

In front of the southern elliptical arcade, outside of the stadium proper but within the inclosure, is a fine garden of oaks and birches with walking paths for the spectators. The paths run in the whole way around the building.

At the foot of the two large eight-sided towers two granite water fountains will play. From the balconies of the towers trumpet signals for the various events will call the competitors onto the field. The music stand will be used for the prize distribution. The flags to be hoisted in honor of the winners are to be placed on the top of the northern entrance.

SPORTS FRESH FROM MAINLAND FILES

Abe Attell, who lost the championship belt, is to sue James Buckley, the manager of Harlem Tommy Murphy for $20,000 as a return for Buckley's remarks that Attell tried to put over a shady deal before his last fight.

Arthur Postle, at Auckland, N. Z., made the 150 yards in 14 1-5 secs. and ran 200 yards in 18 seconds. Both are world's records.

Australian Bill Lang has retired and gone into the hotel business.

Dick Cullen drew with Kid McCoy at Perth, W. A., January 30.

O. R. Hogan was disqualified in the first round of his fight with Leach Cross for hitting in the breakaways.

Gotch lost a handicap match to Ordemann, failing to throw him in 20 minutes.

K. O. Brown shaded Young Erne in a six-round bout.

Packey McFarland defeated Kid Burns in the eighth round.

Ray Temple won all the way from Tommy Dillon.

The Rivers-White bout was stopped to save White in the twelfth round.

Frankie Burns and Johnny Frayne fight on the 29th inst.

The hammer throw may be abolished by the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America.

LEXINGTON (Ky.), March 17.—David R. Look of New York has bought a string of trotting horses from William R. Bradley. The consideration is slightly more than $100,000. Included in the number are Bingen, 2:06 1/4; Consuela S. and Sweet Marie. Besides these there are twenty-eight brood mares and twelve yearlings.

Johnny Greely hosted Monte Attell in Pittsburgh.

Demetral put up a great exhibition of wrestling against Zbyzsko in San Francisco. The Pole only threw the Greek once in 75 minutes. The Pole lost the match on handicap terms.

Hughie McEgan, the Australian lightweight boxer, is going to tour the States under the management of Joseph Woodman.

Tally Johns won a six-round decision over Tommy Dixon.

Herry Spencer, the famous jockey, is dying of consumption.

Pat Keller knocked out Joe Homeland in the second round.

The repeal of the Frawley boxing law in New York is considered probable.

Eddie McGoorty outpointed Hugo Kelly in Kenosha, Wis.

Matt Wells, champion lightweight of England, is in the States after a match with Wolgast.

G. M'KENZIE SHIPS HORSES

John O'Rourke of Hilo writes that he will be in Honolulu on April 5 for the purpose of fixing up a program of athletic sports to be pulled off in Hilo on July 3 and 4.

He is of the opinion that a five-mile race should be the longest pedestrian event as there are such a number of other attractions on the program.

George S. McKenzie, once manager of the Volcano Stables, and owner of Nuliah, Del Vista and other runners, has stated his intention of having an entry in the $2000, mile-and-a-quarter event. He will also send a two-year-old to the meeting.

Present indications point to the Hilo July meeting being the best in the history of island racing.

OUTSIDER WON WATERLOO CUP

The sporting editor of The Star is in receipt of a letter from a friend in England in which it is stated that Braxted is well fancied for the Lincolnshire handicap, the first great race on the English flat, and that Rathnally and Rory O'More divide favoritism for the Grand National Steeplechase run at Liverpool on Friday.

The Waterloo Cup meeting at Ascot this year is said to have been not so good as usual, the hares, as a whole, being weak.

The winner of the Waterloo Cup was Tide Time, and his price at the opening of the meeting and before the draw was 1000 to 10 against.

NEW ALLEYS FOR KAUAI

Garden Island: Manager W. O. Franklin of the Brunswick-Balke-Coller Co., Honolulu, is on the island in the interest of his concern and reports a lively interest among bowling enthusiasts of Kauai. It is not altogether unlikely that he will return to Honolulu with orders for at least two new allies. The Kauai sports are in dead earnest in their desire to be up-to-date in everything they undertake, and the manner in which they are taking hold of this latest—and we might add—most admirable sport, marks an epoch in the new field which all antagonists will do well to observe.

It is not known definitely just which places are to secure the new allies, but this fact does not disturb us a little bit, for the putting in of one or more allies will be such cause for rejoicing that no feeling of discontent can possibly arise. The Garden Island congratulates these purchasers, whoever they may be, for the lead they have taken in supplying Kauai with an additional source of clean sport and pleasure.
